

WRITING FOR ARTISTS

Instructor: Thomas Stanley

Essay One: Package and Frame

Liner notes are a form of writing about music designed to accomplish certain functions which were discussed in class. In a two-three page essay, prepare a set of liner notes for a musical CD selected from your collection. Think carefully about who your audience is and how your notes will be received by them. Bring your music and essay to the next class and be prepared to defend your approach.